

Terrific Track Three Newsletter

Weekly Academic Updates:

Reading: This week in Reading we continued our study of Jackie Robinson while practicing our close reading skills. Next week we will finish up our study of Jackie and take the end of unit test.

Math: This week we reviewed our Unit 6 Part 1 post test (multiplying and dividing multi-digit numbers) and began Unit 6 Part 1, which focuses on multiplying and dividing decimals. Check the Spiral Review post in Google Classroom for practice activities and homework support.

Science: This week we learned about global winds and how heat transfer is connected to weather. We took notes in our Heat Transfer digital notebooks. There will be lots of unit review next week since our Science Case 21 is next Thursday!! Study materials are posted in Google classroom. Science homework is assigned every Monday and is due on Friday. Please support your child's learning by ensuring he or she completes Science homework every week. Thank you!

Social Studies: Social Studies is on hold until Fourth Quarter.
